A little about me.... Hi, my name is Julie Inman. I have been teaching Art in an Elementary School for 11 years. I was honored to be Teacher of the Year in 2002 & 2004 and recognized as Art Educator of the year in 2002. It is my responsibility & passion to awaken in children an interest in art. The arts give us a language that helps us to see the connections in our world. I will provide a variety of art experiences with appropriate and challenging materials in order for the kids to create art that is meaningful for them. I look forward to making a creative difference in your child's life!
